To become a Christ-like community of belonging, invitation, caring and transformation, as by the Holy Spirit we experience God's love and share that love with our neighbours.

Thank you for your partnership in this ministry through giving financially. There are several ways to give. Offering envelopes and a wooden offering box are on the table at the back, or you can give by e-transfer to:

March 16th, 2025 Sunday Services 10:00 AM

WELCOME EVERYONE!

We are glad you came today. As we celebrate and worship together may God also minister to us individually. We invite you to stay for refreshments following the service.

1 Corinthians 13: 1-13

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Save Your Used Stamps

Used stamps are collected by the Canadian Bible Society and sold to vendors in order to purchase Bibles for the Canadian prison ministry. Cut around the used stamp, leaving a ¼ inch border. Bring them to the church and place them in the red coffee container on the back counter.
